Noll's Notes

KRAB today, after fourteen years on-the-air, continues to provide Northwest listeners with programing either not at all, or only nominally, available elsewhere. This is the essence of KRAB: to be many things to many different people, with as high a quality programing as possible at as little expense as possible. Hence the programing by non-professional volunteers; and, hence the new programs and program changes that have occurred in the last few months. Once again this month, KRAB is airing new programs; following is a list with times and dates and descriptions.

SUNDAYS - alternate - 12:00 noon (1/2, 1/16, 1/30)

PANTHERS ANSWERS, a show for young, old, and in-between activists: news, commentary, and interviews; produced by the Seattle chapter of the Grey Panthers (legal rights of the elderly are of special concern to this group)

MONDAYS - alternate - at 7:30 pm (1/10 and 1/24)

WOMENSPEAK, produced by the Everett chapter of the National Organization for Women (N.O.W.)

THURSDAYS - weekly - 7:00 pm

CANTONESE TIME, a new show, in English and Cantonese featuring new, commentary, and popular music from Hong Kong and Taiwan.

ABOUT KRAB

KRAB is a noncommercial educational radio station, owned and operated by the Jack Straw Memorial Foundation, and relying on listeners for funding. The station broadcasts at a power of 45,000 watts, stereo, at 107.7 MHz, FM. Offices and studios are located at 1406 Harvard, Seattle, Wn, 98122. The phone number is 325-5110.

Listeners are encouraged to subscribe, as virtually all the money required to operate KRAB comes from you listeners. Subscriptions, and all other contributions, are tax-deductible, and is all that keeps KRAB from the cold. A $25 subscription will also entitle you to receive the monthly program guide, for a year.

Anyone with opinions in disagreement with those expressed on any program heard on KRAB (or anywhere else for that matter) is invited to contact the station for time to express their views.

Occasionally KRAB will trade mailing lists with other non-profit institutions. If you do not want your name traded, call the station and tell us.

THE GOON SHOW ADDENDUM

The Goon Shows were inadvertently omitted from the program schedule, but will happen anyway.

Here are the highlights:

DRUMS ALONG THE MERSEY

Nedward Seagoon has inherited 1,000,000 pounds, but to claim it he must become a Peruvian. He discovers that the man who left him the money is not dead, but merely over slept.

HELIX COMMUNITY THEATRE

RADIO NET

Max Neuhaus, known for bizarre musical happenings, has come up with one that you can participate in, if you so choose. On Sunday, January 2nd, at 2:00 PM, KRAB will broadcast, live, his latest composition, "Radio Net". Using the interconnect for National Public Radio and their own telephones, people around the country may telephone any of seven "insertion points", and whistle into the system and onto the air. As the sound circles the network, it will be altered, and shifted in pitch at each insertion point.

In Washington, D.C., Neuhaus will further modify the music as the sounds pass through NPR's studios. The effect will turn the NPR interconnection system into "a long multi-resonance pipe with openings all over the country," says Neuhaus. "I've got this idea of the network singing to itself."

Any person can become a "Radio Net" performer by phoning in whistle. The system will constantly select the steadiest, highest-pitched whistles. The nearest insertion point to Seattle is a KUSC in Los Angeles, (213-746-7808). The cost for dialing long distance and one minute of whistling will be about 21¢.

Directions:

- 1) Dial 1-213-746-7808, your call will be answered automatically;
- 2) When you hear a beep, take a deep breath and whistle. Neuhaus requests that you hold a single pitch for as long as you can;
- 3) Then take a deep breath and do it again. Your call will then be inserted onto the interconnect;
